

Financial campaign assures early opening of Youth Center

The Arlington Heights Youth Center fund continues to grow and the community can be assured of its complete success. The Community Council, meeting Monday night, appointed the members of the adult advisory committee which was given authority to take whatever steps may be necessary to have the Youth Center in operation within the shortest time possible.

The Adult Advisory Committee will meet on Thursday to form committees to employ the director, and with the Student Governing Board, plan the remodeling of the Field House, and the purchase of the necessary equipment. The members of this committee are: Robert M. Beatty, chairman; Miss Marian Babbitt, M. F. Egoroff, Rev. W. F. Kampen, Walter Kroeber, Albert W. Meyer, Miss Beverley Peterson and Marvin Freilinger. Representatives from Mt. Prospect and Prospect Heights will be selected later.

The Student Governing Board will meet during the week to draw up rules of membership and conduct and make other plans for the early opening of the Youth Center.

The green light given to the Youth Center by the Community Council was occasioned by the amount of subscriptions and pledges received to date and the assurance that the additional $1,500 will be forthcoming.

The Youth Center fund continues to grow, and the community may be assured of its complete success. Two residential sections, and the business district have not reported final returns, but the following are additional contributions listed.

Club Victory ..... $ 41.00
John Henricks ..... 25.00
Homo Milk Co. .... 25.00
Virgil Horath ..... 25.00
Duntman's Dairy ..... 25.00
Schimming Oil Co. .... 10.00

The success of this campaign has been assured by two factors: the splendid work of the volunteer solicitors, and the generosity of the citizens of Arlington Heights. This last quality is evidenced by the fact that among the individual contributions reported to date, is one $100.00 gift, two of $50.00, two of $20.00, fourteen donations of $25.00, ten of $15.00, and 45 $10.00 contributions. There were more than twice as many donations of $2.00 or more, as of $1.00 or less. The largest gift received was from the Woman's Club, $308.00. Once more, Arlington Heights has shown that cooperative spirit which brings success to any venture.

Red Cross quota in need of dollars

If numbers mean anything the Red Cross drive should be a success in Arlington Heights. There are 116 persons who are soliciting funds. It is too early to announce their results, except that early reports indicate that pocketbooks are not being opened as wide as the Red Cross needs demand.

The radio and newspapers of this week carry threats of the start of a new war in Europe because the people of those countries are starving, need clothing, food and the medical aid of the Red Cross. Can Arlington Hgts. people shut their eyes to the new war possibility?

Arlington Heights people are asked to give $3,600. Fives and tens are needed if that quota is to be met. Next week's Herald will carry the names of the solicitors.

To plan Elmhurst college jubilee at Arlington session

A special meeting of all pastors and laymen as well as alumni of Elmhurst College representing the Arlington Heights Region of Evangelical and Reformed churches will be held in St. John Evangelical and Reformed church at Arlington Heights at 8 o'clock Monday evening, March 18.

Inspirational messages will be delivered by the Rev. E. H. Plassmann, president of the North Illinois Synod, and the Rev. Wm. Rest, D. D., prominent Chicago Clergyman. Ways and means of appropriately celebrating the Diamond Jubilee Anniversary of Elmhurst College throughout the churches of this Northwest Suburban area will be presented. Members of the local church are invited to attend this meeting.

War films at next Lions club meeting

Official war films will be shown at the next Tuesday meeting of the Arlington Heights Lions Club. The pictures are brought here by the Navy recruiting service. An additional feature will be Frank Swain, warden of the county jail.

Club Victory fund to Youth Center

"Club Victory," the directors of which have graduated from the Arlington Heights high school, showed their sympathy for the Youth Center by contributing to the project the balance in the treasury of that organization, which staged a number of dances in the field house during the 1944-45 school year. The letter accompanying the check reads as follows:

"We wish to congratulate you, and the students of Arlington Heights Township High School on your splendid efforts to organize a Youth Center in Arlington Hts. Since Club Victory is no longer operating for the students, we would like to turn over to you a balance of $41.00. We hope this will help, in some small way, but most of all, we hope your enthusiasm will continue, and make Arlington Heights proud of their young folks. Good luck to you in this new undertaking. Yours truly, Harriet Juhnke, pres., Dolores Reisse, Marjorie Kester, Walter Dick, Gene Stroker, Henry Ehard."

Local firm 30 years old

Arlington Elevator and Coal Co. will celebrate its 30th birthday Saturday. On March 16, 1916, the Schnebergers purchased of the late S. E. Pate a coal, flour and feed business, the warehouse and office of which occupied the site of the present brick office structure of the Arlington Elevator & Coal Co. This firm is the successor of a business that has served the community for nearly a hundred years.

During the Schneberger regime, George Schneberger as manager and later his sister, Emily, as bookkeeper, have directed the affairs of the firm, changing methods of operation in keeping with changing conditions. During recent years their brother-in-law, Marshall Sherrill, has joined the firm.

The mud roads in 1916, meant deliveries by wagon and bobsleds. By 1920 the village of 1916 with 1800 inhabitants started to grow. There was rapid growth of homes. With the advent of paved streets the Schnebergers dropped the flour and feed business and began selling building materials. During World War I, while George was in the service, his 18 year old sister, Alice, conducted the business with the help of such men as John Tesch, John Firnbach and Louis Clark. She carried on until George returned from service.

The Schnebergers, back in 1920 were the first to discard horses and begin the use of trucks. In 1921 they were the first to install coal silos and automatic unloading. A few years later they were the first to use a high lift truck for coal delivery.

With the advent of the building boom and road construction in 1923 they installed one of the fastest unloading retail sand and gravel outfits in the state. Road pavers and building contractors took advantage of this service. Fuel oil was added to other lines carried by the Schnebergers whose slogan during the entire 30 years has been "sudden service."

Today they are further streamlining their business by the erection of a new office building and warehouse adjoining their silos. This firm has kept pace with the community and has become one of the best known business establishments in the Northwest area.

Sunday evening St. Peter church Lenten concert

The noted Baganz Trio will present a Sacred Lenten Concert at St. Peter Lutheran church Sunday, 8 p. m. These gifted musicians offer an unusual combination of instruments to delight the ear, a harp, a marimba and cathedral chimes. In a previous appearance this trio was warmly acclaimed and all lovers of music who hear them Sunday will express their appreciation again.

This program offers a selection of hymns and masterpieces by the great composers of the church in solo, duet and trio arrangements.

No set admission fee will be charged, but a free will offering will be taken during the concert. Here is religious music at its best. All lovers of good music are invited to come and enjoy this sacred concert.

Business block threatened by attic fire

An attic fire in the fifty year old Meyer mansion, State rd., Arlington Heights, threatened other business structures of that area Sunday night when two fire departments worked several hours to extinguish the blaze. Lack of wind probably saved the adjoining Tibbitts Cameron lumber yard.

The fire started in the attic in the midst of a lot of household goods that had been stored there. Flames soon burst through the roof, much for the community cupola and the Arlington department was on the job with both trucks. Access to the fire was not possible from the south side of the building. As it was the former home of Stubby Meyer, fire captain, he personally directed two lines of hose through the building to the attic while three ladders were erected on the outside.

At the request of the owner, the Mt. Prospect department was also called and laid 1400 feet of hose to make a hydrant connection in Pine street. Arlington used 2,000 feet of hose.

The fire damage was not great, and water caused the greatest loss, which will amount to over $4,000. Mrs. VanDusen, who had rented part of the first floor for an antique shop had just completed the decorating of her new store and expected to move in her stock the following day. Occupants of the building were Mrs. Ross and Herman Heinz.

This structure, which was one of the landmarks of Arlington Heights fifty years ago, was built by the late William Meyer and stands at the entrance of the former Meyer Park, which was the scene of many civic outdoor events in years past.

Special police to start house calls Friday

Arlington Heights housewives will have callers Friday. They will find a special police officer at their door who will ask: Have you a car and have you purchased your 1946 vehicle tag? Have you a dog and does it have a dog tag?

If you do not have the correct answer to, the $64 question the caller will present you with an arrest slip asking that you report before Judge Neuman at the time and date shown on the ticket or tickets.

Every dog, whether he roams the neighbor's lawn, his own premises, or stays in the house, must have a license.

The callers can be identified by the police cap and police star they will be wearing. The village has been divided into eleven districts so that the calls can be made as rapidly as possible in order to save the women from holding an open house for callers for more than the one day.

Elk Grove rural school to consider consolidation

Patrons of school district 58, Elk Grove township, have been asked to attend a meeting in the school house of that district Friday, March 22, to decide whether to re-open the school or work out a plan of consolidation with two neighboring school districts.

There have been no school sessions in this district in ten years, the district paying the tuition for school children. At present eight children are in attendance at Des Plaines city schools and four are attending district 59 school.

If the patrons favor a consolidation, part of the district would be annexed to Dist. 56, Arlington Heights road and part, Dist. 59, Higgins road.

The directors are Louis Linne-man and Karl Krueger. Present school tax rate, Dist. 58, 8c; Dist. 56, 33c, and Dist. 59, 88c.

Central-Wilke newest subdivision to be opened

Messrs Wise and Levin have applied to the Arlington Heights Zoning Board for approval of a subdivision lying on the north side of Central road, from Wilke road, thirteen hundred feet east. Tracts will be 100x250 feet east. This property is outside the Arlington Heights village limits.

A second subdivision awaiting final approval by the zoning board is Laurinwood, immediately east of Scarsdale Estates. The board insisted north and south streets be opened through the subdivision which required the owners to change some of their plans.

Plan War Memorial Now

A suggestion made by an Arlington Heights official. Much has been said in a general way about the Arlington Heights War Memorial, but to date no definite objective or plan has been evolved.

Many fine suggestions have been put forth but only a few of them appear to fit the community for size as an undertaking. Some appear to be the wishful thinking of limited groups rather than community wide in scope and conception. Sincerely surveyed the War Memorial, to be a true Memorial, must be universal in use and appeal.

It is imperative, if the Memorial is to become a reality, that a definite plan be adopted and goals set now. The successful completion of this project will do much for the community spirit of Arlington Heights.

With a view of bringing about the adoption of a definite plan the following suggestions are respectfully made to those who are undertaking the War Memorial job: they are intended to stimulate community thinking to the end that we can complete this task and expand our surplus energies on some of the much talked about other projects that everyone recognizes as desirable. These projects are clearly within the realm of realization if our community spirit remains healthy and vigorous.

Let the War Memorial be a living Memorial to all who faced the common foe in order that the things we strove for may be safeguarded and perpetuated for our selves and our children. And among these things culture, education, refinement and decency should be fostered and cultivated on a community wide plan.

The suggested plan. Let us build a monumental building costing upwards of $50,000 to be located on publicly owned park property at the corner of Belmont ave. and Miner street. The plans to be selected from the files of leading American architects or by invitation to American architects for a singular honor (name engraved in corner stone) plus a nominal fee.

Architecture for said building should be correct in every architectural sense and to conform with a type to be recommended for adoption for the community's official and semi-official structures. Possible features (limited only by budget) could be stained glass memorial windows—west for supreme sacrifice—north for purple hearts—east for living—south for triumphant victory; ivy covered clock tower; Westminster chimes; world map murals or illuminated globe with tiny stars marking scenes of Arlington action; south wall of building to

Parents night for Cub scouts Friday at North school

Friday night, March 15, will be "Parents Night". All parents of Arlington Heights Cub Scouts as well as others interested in the work of cubbing, are invited to attend "Parents Night" at the North School at 7:30 p. m.

A program that will be of interest to all Cub Scouts, as well as parents, has been arranged. There will be an induction ceremony when a number of boys will be inducted into the Cub Scouts. In addition, a number of Cub Scouts will receive arrows and badge awards as rewards for their efforts in cubbing activities. There are also three Cubs who will be awarded their Webelos badge and graduate into the Boy Scouts.

After the program refreshments will be served.

Wheeling-Elk Grove collections start April 3

Wm. Annen, Wheeling township collector and Albert Kraemer, Elk Grove collector, will start the collection of taxes in their townships on April 3.

Mr. Annen will make his headquarters at the Arlington Heights National Bank, with certain days at Wheeling and Mt. Prospect banks.

Mr. Kraemer's home office will be the Mt. Prospect State Bank with certain days at Itasca and Arlington Heights banks.

The collectors are getting out their bills and will be ready to receive their customers on April 3.

Army recruiting office at Des Plaines

Sgt. Karl H. Pfeiffer, Jr., is now in charge of the army recruiting office for northwest Cook County. He can be found at the Chevrolet agency, 1500 Miner street, Des Plaines, where he will be happy to answer questions and give information relative to army enlistments.

Vote on school addition Saturday

Bonds call for only 2½% interest

The Village Hall has been designated by the Board of Education of District No. 25 as the Polling Place for the special election on the South School addition. The election will be held in Arlington Heights Saturday, March 16, and the polls will be open from 12 noon to 7 p. m.

At this time, the voters will be asked to approve the building of the addition and to authorize the Board of Education to issue bonds in the amount of one hundred eighty-five thousand dollars. Although a referendum was held in 1941 authorizing the issuance of bonds for an addition to the South School, competent legal authorities advise the Board of Education that, because of the lapse of time, a new referendum will be necessary and that it is not possible to issue the bonds previously voted.

The maximum interest rate which the voters will be asked to approve is 2½, with a possibility, according to the Board of Education, that the rate may be lower. It is pointed out by W. L. Fellingham, chairman of the finance committee of the Board of Education, that while building costs are higher, this fact is balanced, at least partly, by lower interest rates. Not for many years has it been possible to amortize bonds at less expense to the taxpayer.

This addition fills a long-standing need of the school by supplying a kindergarten, four classrooms, a library, administration offices, cafeteria, and a combined auditorium-gymnasium. Since the school system now has no gymnasium, it has been planned with a view to its being used by all the older children of the school system. This building program will relieve the crowded condition now existing in the North School by providing facilities in the South School for seventh and eighth grade pupils from that part of the district.

If the elementary school system is to be prepared for the growth expected in the community during the next few years, it is felt by the Board of Education that it is imperative that overcrowded conditions and the lack of necessary facilities be corrected now.

Elgin rated first place in the contest, Maywood, Proviso rated second, and Arlington rated third. Other schools represented were Barrington, Marengo, and Rochelle.

The contestants are being coached by Miss Dorrine Petersen of the high school faculty.

Locomotive tries to run on grass, but fails

The old axiom that no train is stronger than its weakest link was proven in Arlington Heights Monday afternoon when a Chicago Northwestern locomotive attempted to cut across the park at Dunton street, but failed.

The engine was derailed when the switch was closed too early. As the ironman was backing in to the siding an unnamed person closed the switch, setting up the derail before the engine had passed.

Train crew spent more than four hours attempting to re-track the engine, but would have had more success if they had used just half the men watching the process, plus a good stout crowbar. Railroad repair outfit finally lifted the locomotive back on the rails.

'Evening of Magic' show next week at high school

Orenda, nationally known magician, mentalist, and escape artist, will present his "Evening of Magic" show at 8 P. M. on Friday, March 22, at the Arlington Heights High School Auditorium. The show will be under the sponsorship of the National Honor Society of the high school.

The magician, whose program will run almost two hours, has traveled the entire country and has appeared in over 4000 performances. His show is known as "A show for the whole family" and in previous appearances in this area has drawn large crowds of adults and children.

The feature trick of the show is the famous double escape from a strait-jacket and padlocked bag. Other unusual mysteries will include Mindreading, The Master Memory, Sands of The Desert, and The Penetration Illusion. The most amazing tricks in the show are the audience participation mysteries in which children, as well as adults, take part.

All seats will be 50 cents including tax and are available at the high school. Tickets may also be obtained from any National Honor Society member or from Sieburg's Drug Store.

Chamber of Commerce saves war memorial fund here

Arlington Heights War Memorial Fund will continue to be the chief recipient of the net proceeds of the annual July 4th celebration. The Community Council voted Monday night almost unanimously to retain that event under its jurisdiction. The Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce had asked that the celebration be returned to their joint sponsorship. There was little discussion. Fifteen civic organizations were represented at the meeting.

When a representative of the Lions Club was asked if that organization had adopted any particular project that would benefit by the July 4th receipts, if the event was given under its sponsorship, he stated that some thought had been given to night lighting of the baseball diamond. Postoffice petitions.

The volume of petitions asking for the erection of a government post office building in Arlington Heights is nearly ready to be forwarded to Washington. One "chapter" will contain the petition from all local organizations. Representatives present at Monday night's meeting affixed their signatures with names of their parent body. Hundreds of signatures were secured February 23 to petitions circulated by the boy and girl scouts.

Arlington high students place in speech contest

The contestants are being coached by Miss Dorrine Petersen of the high school faculty.

Village discovers street orphans

When a reporter for the Herald dropped into the Arlington Heights village treasurer's office Monday evening he found Mayor Goedke, Attorney Thal and Aldermen Adam and Studman in the midst of a street naming bee. They were having as much trouble, as a mother trying to find a suitable name for her newly born child.

Their first problem child was Harvard street on the south side which bears the same name as a northside street. They finally selected Maple street as a suitable name as adjoining streets bear names of trees.

After naming the one "child" the aldermen decided to give Stonegate and Sherwood the honor of naming the other two orphans. They decided that three "park" streets is one too many. Two of them will remain—Park Place adjoining Memorial Park in the northwestern part of the village and Park Street, south of the Stonegate Street. The present name of Park Lane in Stonegate must be renamed, and it is up to Stonegate people to make the selection.

The "Center" street family has triplets, or quintuplets, which the aldermen decided were way too many. The authentic street by that name is Central road in the extreme south section of the village. In the northeast part of town there is Central ave., and the two twins, Central ave., West and Central ave., East. The first two will be renamed Beverly Lane, as they can be considered an extension of the latter street which has its beginning in Scarsdale. Central ave. East will be renamed Lincoln Lane.

The fifth member of the Central family is in Arlington Park in the Northwestern part of the village. The north end of that street is the beginning of Hendrix Lane. Sherwood residents will cast the street naming vote at the next meeting of the property owners.

The re-christening of the orphan streets will be done by ordinance.

Saturday evening, March 9, the Mt. Prospect V. F. W. club house resounded with the cheery happy laughter of a full house of dancers who were in most instances learning to barn dance for the first time. The wives and friends were guests of the members of the Mt. Prospect Masonic Club. The caller and his assistants in instructions were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bydal, J. Wax, C. Gallagher, Mrs. Hager.

After two sets of dancers were shown how to do the Texas Star, everybody joined in the squares to fill the entire floor. Duck the oyster, Peek-a-boo, Rye Waltz and Circle two Steps followed in order. Dancers clamored for more at the end of each dance. Music was furnished by Lester Griffith of Arlington Heights and Bill Cooke of Palatine, specialists in old fashioned music.

Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Paul Jonas, who sang. Ed Rash gave his impersonation of Tony at the ballgame and Mrs. M. Ziegler of Elmhurst played the piano for singing. C. Bydal, Ed Rash, Holmberg and Peterson did ye olde quartette work. Drinks, coffee and sandwiches were served.

The arrangement committee was Clarence Bydal, R. Hortburg, P. Jonas, E. Worley, W. Wirsing and F. Hedemark.

So. Pacific veteran tells Woman's club of songs

The Arlington Heights Woman's club held its regular meeting at the fieldhouse on Wednesday, March 6th, Mrs. O. M. Baldwin, presiding. During the business meeting Mrs. Walter Hermesdorf reported that the sum of $208 was cleared at the card party given recently for the benefit of the Youth Center. The Woman's club added $100 to this amount making the sum of $308 as the Woman's club contribution to the Youth Center.

Upon the recommendation of Mrs. B. A. Noyes, the club voted to buy an acre of trees in the Shawnee National Forest, a Federation project, to honor Mrs. C. P. Draper who has done so much for the Arlington Heights club.

The victory service meetings of the club have been discontinued but the club voted to have a Woman's Club Red Cross unit which will meet on the third Wednesday of the month to sew for the Red Cross.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Geo. N. Tuttle, program chairman, introduced Mr. Rex Hogan who presented the program, "They Sing in the South Pacific."

Mr. Hogan was in the army 7 months before the United States entered the war and was one of the first to go overseas and one of the first to be wounded in the South Pacific.

He told many interesting and humorous things about their experiences in Australia. He said that one of the things the boys missed most was hamburgers, but they soon taught the Australians to make them. Before long however, they were being made of ground mutton, much to their dismay. Australians are great tea drinkers and he said that after the Americans tasted their coffee most of them became tea drinkers.

He gave many of their slang expressions and words which differ from ours. A rural district is spoken of as "the bush," a radio is a wireless, a movie is a flicker, a nurse is a sister. Instead of giving someone a ring, you give them a tinkle.

Horse racing is their chief sport and their race tracks are like beautiful botanical gardens. The Yanks have taught them baseball and it has become very popular.

Mr. Hogan spoke highly of the "Fuzzie Wuzzies" who have given so much aid to wounded American soldiers. They went up under fire to bring the wounded back to the hospitals and Mr. Hogan said that he could speak from experience about how gently they transported the wounded for they carried him 5 miles. The speaker spent 11 months in Australian hospitals after a lung wound. He had sung in churches, hospitals and over the Australian radio before going into the jungle and when he was recuperating from his wound he was encouraged to sing to exercise his lung.

Wednesday afternoon he sang 7 songs. The first, "Brown Men of Bona," was a tribute to the Fuzzie Wuzzies. The second, "The White Ship" had been inspired by the sinking of a ship off the coast of Australia. Next he sang "Pardon Me, Miss Australia," a clever song which showed the differences in Australian and American slang. The last four songs he sang were the ones he had the most requests for during the time he sang for the soldiers. Shubert's "Ave Maria" topped the list, then there was "Short-nin' Bread," "Keep on Hoping," and "Home, Sweet Home."

Mr. Hogan was enthusiastically received by the club and members enjoyed talking with him during the social hour.

Arlington home bureau meets

The Arlington Heights Home Bureau unit met at the home of Mrs. Rex Volz last Tuesday, with the new chairman, Mrs. A. H. Franzen, presiding. After routine business, the major lesson on "Fish Cookery" was ably presented by Mrs. August Stelling and Mrs. O. C. Kurtz. The minor lesson on Hawaii was begun by showing a collection of pre-war and wartime pictures of Hawaii, taken by Mrs. S. J. Csanadi's brother. The lesson will be continued in April by Mrs. Chas. F. Stadelman and Mrs. Csanadi.

Anyone interested in Home Bureau is invited to attend the next meeting, or to contact Mrs. Franzen, the chairman, or Mrs. Carl Ewert, Membership Chairman, for further information. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. F. Stadelman, and Mrs. Marie Cornelius, the Home Bureau Adviser, will present a lesson on "Hair Arrangement and Care."

American Legion auxiliary notes

After the business meeting a "get together" of past presidents of the unit has been called by Bertha M. Tuetsch, the past presidents luncheon on Mar. 5 was well attended and justice was done to the varied assortment of dishes. There was butter for the rolls just like old times.

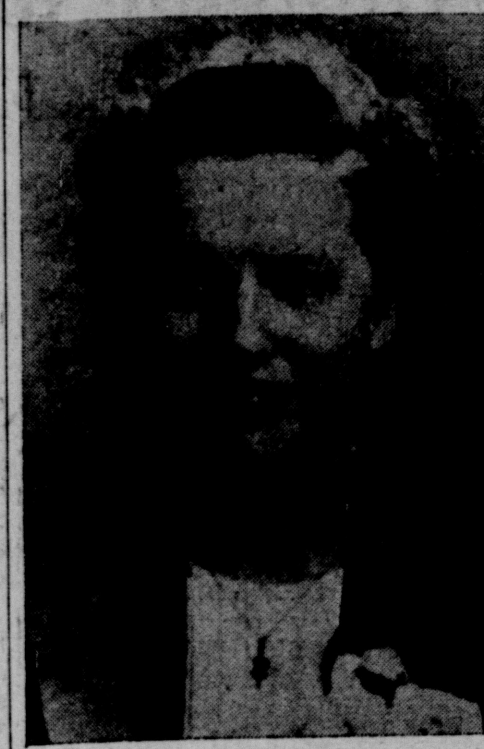

After the luncheon a group of members assembled the pieces for sewing kits for veterans at Hines hospital. The members took them home to sew and fill with needles, pins, safety pins, buttons and thread.

The Americanism chairman, Camille Peroutka, presented flags to the girl scouts on Mar. 11.

The president and Millie Russell attended the Cook County Council meeting on Friday.

Tarragon Vinegar

Tarragon vinegar is a favorite in dressing summer salads. The dark green leaves of tarragon are used for seasoning the vinegar. They are used both fresh and dried. This herb needs a little covering of litter and leaves for winter protection.

Originality is keynote of Arlington girl scout skit

Originality was the keynote of the sketch, "Nothing But Trouble," which was written and given by the twenty members of Troop 6 at the girl scout birthday party Monday afternoon in the Arlington Heights field house.

The occasion marked the 34th anniversary of the founding of the national organization and was celebrated simultaneously by 1,200,000 girl scouts throughout the United States. Approximately 200 scouts were in attendance at the local birthday rally. Troop leaders were in charge of their respective groups, and in several cases they were aided by the assistant troop leaders.

Mrs. William Walton, assistant chairman of training, presided in the absence of the council president, Mrs. Alva H. Meyer, who was in Indiana. Mrs. Walton directed group singing by all the troops and introduced Mrs. John Peroutka, Americanism chairman for the American Legion auxiliary, who had charge of the presentation of American flags to the troops. She explained the symbolism of the flag and emphasized all that it should represent to real Americans.

The rally program included a wide variety of singing games, folk songs and skits. The "Minstrel Show" given by members

Fountain Pen
An unusual type of fountain pen, made at present only in England, is used by the United States army air forces. It will not leak even at high altitudes and can safely be carried uncapped. It is also claimed that the pen will write on soaking wet paper, hold a two-year ink supply, never smear, will write in any position and make carbons without tearing the paper. Manufacture of the pen is expected to be undertaken soon in the United States.

Spare stamp 9 now good for canning sugar

Housewives will obtain sugar for home canning this year through use of their family ration books, the Office of Price Administration announced today. Spare Stamp 9 became valid Monday, March 11, for five lbs. of home canning sugar. The stamp will be good through October 31.

Most consumers will find Spare Stamp 9 in their Ration Book Four. Others, who have received their ration books only recently, including many returned servicemen, will find the stamp in the single-sheet sugar ration book issued to them in lieu of Ration Book Four.

Consumers are advised to retain ration books in their possession even though they may have used the last stamp specifically labeled "sugar".

Since there are a number of uncertainties in the sugar supply outlook—particularly as to the amount of the Cuban crop which will be available and in relation to the requirements of war stricken areas—it appears unlikely that the home canning allowance will be more than 10 pounds per person.

Spare Stamp 9 is the first of two stamps to be made good for buying home canning sugar. It is made good now to provide sugar in the southern areas where fruits are available early in the year. Since the stamp will be good through October 31, housewives in other parts of the country can plan their use of the sugar to coincide with the arrival of fruits in good quantity in their neighborhoods. It is expected that a second stamp can be validated in late June or early July and, like the first stamp, have a validity period long enough to permit its use when fruits become plentiful in each area.

No addition to the regular consumer ration (five pounds each four-month period) can be foreseen at this time. Housewives are urged, therefore, to continue to budget their sugar use so that the home canning sugar will be used only as intended; that is, for actual home canning. The next regular sugar stamp becomes good May 1.

Memorial service Sunday for Bill Danielson, lost on bomber

A memorial service for William C. Danielson, Jr., will be held at the South Church, corner Emerson st. and Sha Boney Trail, Mt. Prospect, Sunday afternoon, March 17, at 3 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Edwin I. Stevens, will conduct the service.

Technical Sergeant William C. Danielson, Jr., lost his life in a bombing mission over Germany on March 18, 1945. For some time he was listed as missing in action. His death in action was later confirmed by the release of surviving crew members who had been prisoners of war.

Crew mates have related to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Danielson, Sr., of 409 N. Elmhurst rd., Prospect Heights, that their B-17 was taking part in a bombing raid on Berlin. They were attacked by jet-propelled German fighter planes. The tail of their bomber fell away and the fore part of the plane spun to the ground.

Five of the crew were able to parachute to the ground. Four others, including Sgt. Danielson, were killed by enemy fire or in the crash of the bomber.

Gains wings

Bill Danielson was graduated from Arlington Heights High School in June, 1943, and immediately thereafter entered the service of his country. From the Reception Center at Camp Grant he went to Amarillo, Texas, for basic training. Then followed six months in Radio School at Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

He received his wings after completing gunnery training at Yuma, Arizona, and completed cross-country flight training at Rapid City, South Dakota. In September, 1944, Bill flew with his crew to England where they were based.

As a member of the 100th Bombardment Group of the 351st Bombardment Squadron, Bill flew 32 bombing missions over the continent, during the last of which he gave his life when his plane was destroyed. On that day twenty-five bombers and five fighter planes were lost.

Air medal five times

The Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters and the Purple Heart Medal, awarded to Bill, have been received by his parents. They also have a Citation of Honor issued by the Army Air Forces over the signature of H. H. Arnold, Commanding General, and a Certificate "In Grateful Memory" over the signature of Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States.

Bill was nearing his twentieth birthday at the time of his death. He was a member of the South Church in Mt. Prospect, having been baptized into the fellowship of that group on Easter Sunday, April 9, 1939. He is survived by his parents and his sister, Dorothy Danielson, a member of the Waves. "He stands in the unbroken line of patriots who have dared to die that freedom might live, and grow, and increase its blessings. Freedom lives, and through it, he lives, in a way that humbles the undertakings of most men."

When the mirror gets splattered with tiny flecks of tooth paste and shaving soap, use a crumpled piece of toilet paper to wipe it off, rubbing the whole glass, and you'll find you've polished it as well. Make this quick shine up trick part of your daily tidying routine.

Consider stop light at NW hwy and Palatine rd.

The Chicago Motor Club at its February meeting authorized an investigation of traffic conditions at the Northwest highway and Palatine road, Palatine. Object of the test is to discover the necessity of a traffic light at that corner. Their ok would bring a recommendation for a light to the State.

"Spring comes on forever"

by C. W. LUSSMAN
of Sieburg Pharmacy

No season of the year is so eagerly anticipated as the lovely spring months when the earth seems made over for our especial benefit.

Certain dangers lurk, however, in the approach of milder weather. We throw off heavy coats and furs, change our ways of living, often expose ourselves to colds and these can lead to more serious pulmonary troubles.

Check with the doctor just in case you need a tonic, need Vitamins, or perhaps a rest for health protection.

Secure all your medical needs from a trusted druggist.

Scout leaders monthly session at Des Plaines

Scout leaders of Dist. 2, N. W. S. Council held regular monthly meeting in O. C. D. room of Des Plaines Village Hall Wednesday evening, March 6th, to hear committee reports of progress of Scouting Program for 1946.

Byron Foote, District Chairman, called the meeting to order at 8:20 p. m. Among the leaders present were: Arnold Hatch, Chairman Publicity, Mt. Prospect; B. L. Cochran, Troop 32 Committeeman, Arlington Heights; F. Zollner, Pack 218 Committeeman, Wheeling; C. D. Jones, Asst. Scoutmaster Troop 32, Arlington Heights.

Otto Pfeiffer gave an excellent report on his committee's activities, pointing out that the Appreciation Dinner which was held at Mt. Prospect was unusually successful. Results of the Scout Leaders' Training Course also were very satisfactory, nearly 20 having completed the course.

Stan Huntington added that the "Troop Camping Course" is in the hands of Bill Forrest now, and he expects to start classes about the middle of April.

A session in Commissioner Training will be given in an overnight camp at Camp Baden Powell, March 30 and 31, under the auspices of the Councils of Oak Park, Lombard and Evanston.

Art Wiedeman gave an excellent talk on what he proposes to accomplish in the next few months. With his business ability and experience as a background he has worked out a definite program which will aid Scouting very materially. Art announced that Bill Ziebell will act as Chairman of the Council Health and Safety, which is a very important part of Scouting.

Bill Kratt said that C. D. Jones is replacing A. G. Culey as Asst. Commissioner and Al Baker is Council Field Commissioner of Camping.

Al Baker in his report pointed out that practically all troops are making very good progress.

Public endorses realtors appeal for GI homes

The response by home owners to the little article appearing in our local papers last week was very gratifying. The writer of the article was pleasantly surprised at the enthusiasm of those who have space available. It surely is encouraging to the veteran to find at last that some group is interested in them enough to make a determined effort to find them a place to live, such as the realtors of the community are making now. The real happiness is only brought into being by doing something good for your fellowman, or of being of service to them without hope of monetary or material recompense. To see someone's face light up with gratitude for something you have done for him is worth more than all the money in the world.

The realtors of your community are men of such caliber and character that they gladly take part in all civic affairs as a public service for which their only pay is the satisfaction of having rendered a public service to the best of their ability, and they are heart and soul in this idea of finding homes for veterans free of charge. All the realtors belonging to the Northwest Suburban Real Estate Board have pledged themselves to go out of their way to secure quarters for veterans to rent until such time as they can either build or buy something for themselves.

It is now squarely up to the householders to meet this situation with the Realtors. Because, after all, the man or woman who owns the house must do his or her share toward making living quarters available, and they are the ones who will draw the revenue and profit by the transaction. In order to facilitate matters and so that the house owner can know which of the real estate men belong to the board, the following list should be of great help to you.

Palatine—Wm. H. DePue, Roy L. LaLonde.

Arlington Heights—Krause & Koke, Willson & Florence.

Barrington — Wirt Lawrence, Donald C. Schroeder, Frank Trestik.

Prospect Heights — Carlton A. Smith.

Mt. Prospect—Geo. Busse.

To show new version of New Testament at Elgin

Dr. Clarence Tucker Craig, Oberlin, Ohio, will introduce the new Revised Standard Version of the New Testament at a meeting of the Council of Boards of the Church of the Brethren to be held on the fourth floor of the Brethren Publishing House in Elgin next Wednesday, March 20, according to Dr. Raymond E. Peters, general secretary and adult director of the Board of Christian Education, Church of the Brethren. While the meeting is especially for leaders of the Brethren Church, invitation is extended to interested people of Elgin and vicinity, Dr. Peters stated.

Prepared by a group of eminent Bible scholars under the authorization of the International Council of Religious Education, the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament was officially released on Feb. 11, 1946, in a ceremonial presentation before representatives of 40 Protestant denominations and 173 state, city and provincial councils of churches and religious education of the United States and Canada at the 24th annual meeting of the International Council at Columbus, Ohio.

National Camp Fire girls have 34th birthday

The national Camp Fire girls organization received its first charter in March, 1912, thus becoming the oldest national girls' organization. The movement began in 1910 when Dr. and Mrs. Luther H. Gulick organized a character building and activity program for their girls and their friends during a summer vacation in the Maine woods. In 1911 Camp Fire was first introduced to the public at a Boy Scout pageant in Thetford, Vermont. Daniel Beard, a pioneer Boy Scout, became interested in the Camp Fire movement and assisted Dr. and Mrs. Gulick in perfecting the organization.

More than 2,000,000 girls have been enrolled in the membership of the Camp Fire since its inception. The purpose of the organization as stated in its constitution is "to perpetuate the spiritual ideals of the home" and "to stimulate and aid the formation of habits making for health and character." Thus the groups, begun by Dr. and Mrs. Gulick, have played a great part in developing high qualities in American womanhood.

The activity program of Camp Fire is based on seven crafts, Home, Health, Camp, Hand, Business and Citizenship. In all these crafts the girls work for honors denoting their achievement. The ranks through which they seek to progress are Trail Seeker, Wood Gatherer, Fire Maker and Torch Bearer. In all their activities the Camp Fire Law is applied to daily living.

Every girl becoming a member of a Camp Fire group repeats this desire: "It is my desire to become a Camp Fire Girl, to serve God and my country, and to follow the Law of the Camp Fire which is—Worship God, Seek Beauty, Give Service, Pursue Knowledge, Be Trustworthy, Hold on to Health, Glorify Work, Be Happy."

By the Arlington Heights Health Center affiliated with The Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County.

I wonder if each of us realizes how all important good eyesight is, and what we must do to preserve this priceless heritage. Our happiness, our work and play, in fact our very civilization is built around good eyesight.

Think for a moment what you would do if you lost your eyesight. Our eyes are one of the most delicate parts of our body, and we cannot afford to abuse or neglect them. They deserve good treatment and constant care to keep them working efficiently. Symptoms of all types of eye or vision ailments should be respected immediately, and proper treatment and care by a physician should be your first step.

We can keep our eyes healthy by keeping our body healthy, by observing the rules of good, sound living. Cleanliness is an important part of this. The eyes should be kept clean by face washing, especially about the eyes, with mild soap and clean water. Dirty fingers and soiled linen must be kept away from the eyes. If irritating dust particles or other foreign matter enter the eye, they should be removed immediately before irritation or more serious consequences set in.

The avoidance of strain also is an important factor in keeping eyes healthy. We must be sure that the light by which we read and work is adequate. A headache in the region of the eyes usually warns us of eye strain, and this warning should not go unheeded. We must protect our eyes at all times from too strong light and foreign matter which might seriously injure our vision.

We get only one pair of eyes. There are no replacements.

Kelly's Kolumn

In my latest communique from Jim Hayden, dated January 28, he reported he was aboard the destroyer USS Henry W. Tucker, anchored in the bay of Amami O Shima, Japan. That's a long way from home, boy.

After boot leave Jim went to radar school in San Diego, then hopped cross continent to Norfolk, Va., where he went aboard "this heap of thin tin I call home" as he puts it. Their shakedown cruise was supposed to end up in the South Pacific but the gunners' mates were so far off the ball it was considered foolish to send a brand new destroyer into active duty.

Therefore they cruised back to the East coast and joined a task force operating off Portland, Maine. Jim said liberty in that town was really rugged—he lost 20 pounds trying to keep up with the women in those ports. Eventually, his ship worked its way around to the Pacific. From here on I give you an excerpt from his letter; it's pure, unadulterated "Hayden".

"After a few hectic liberties in Honolulu we hoisted anchor and pointed our sharp little bow in the direction of the Bay of Tokyo and after nearly floundering, due to a storm and narrowly missing a derelict mine, we arrived in Yokosuka, a joint not too far from Tokyo. "Christmas Eve I spent aboard the carrier "Boxer" and we left soon after for an island called Sasebo. After acquiring souvenirs of all kinds we cruised to Nagoya and there I narrowly escaped death from overindulgence in contaminated Jap beer. More articles were purchased in Nagoya at the rate of 3 yen ($2) for a package of fags. You see we can get only 15 yen for a dollar and on our pay would be sadly out of luck if that were the only method of acquiring Jap currency—so we played upon the Japanese weakness for our cigarettes and retailed them to the Japs at our own prices.

"The entire crew spends their off hours in devising new methods of smuggling cigarettes past the inspecting SPs. I personally hold the record as far as I can determine as I made a Liberty with 63 packs secreted about me. I had the things taped to my back and chest, stuffed in the arms of my blouse under my hat, in my socks, crammed in all my pockets and pinned to my skivvies. I was, to tell the truth, very uncomfortable till I sold them.

"Well to condense matters we finally hit Okinawa and after a short time we ended up here in Amami O Shima. O Shima is a small island about 15 miles N. E. of Okinawa and we are the weather station, government agents, traffic cops and play the role of God-Almighty to the natives in these parts.

"We are anchored in an inland bay of about three miles in diameter and in one of the most beautiful spots that I have ever seen. The surrounding mountains drop right down into the sea and the bay itself is invariably as smooth as a mirror. There is only one small village of huts visible in the distance and the people are living in approximately the same way that they were a hundred years ago. "Primeval" is the word. We are stuck in this place until some ship comes to relieve us which should take place in about three weeks if they remember that we are out here—if they remember.

"Well, this brings me up to date and now let's get on to other things—you and Arlington, for instance. "Now you, being one of the more lively members of the younger generation, ought to know what is going on around the town—what gives? I can't get any useful dope out of my folks and Ken Busse absolutely refused to write so what am I to do, my communications with all other members of Arlington's fair sex are exactly nil, so I am in rather a bad situation as far as news is concerned. How about it, 'honey child', will you come across? I'd really like to know what's going on—you know the general dope, who's dating who, the latest scandals, etc."

Jim's mail situation has gone from bad to worse. Any letters from his friends would be appreciated very much. His address is: James C. Hayden, S1C, R-Division, USS Henry W. Tucker, DD875, FPO, San Francisco, California.

WHAT'S UP DOC?

Maybe its their pleasant manner the navy thought would be appropriate at a bedside that inspires the recruiting officers to put the Kempf boys in medals. Not only was Don a former pharmacist mate but his six foot, four and one-half inch "kid brother" Bruce is in the First Aid Department at the Forest Park naval torpedo plant where he practices on any and all victims that come his way. Being stationed so close to Arlington makes it possible to come home every night and having a particular fondness for his mother's cooking, he takes full advantage of the situation.

LIFE OF RILEY

These girls with bankers hours! Now take Joyce Wille and Carolyn Jaacks for instance. They arise every morning at the gruesome hour of eight, have time for a quick whisk at the bicuspids, and a swallow of coffee, then dash off to the Arlington Heights bank and take their places behind the cages on the stroke of nine. I shudder what an ungodly hour. The doors of our honored bank close at two and although I have heard the employees stay to finish up what ever they do in banks, I've always had my doubts. One thing I notice, they look so happy. Who wouldn't, surrounded by all that green stuff! Naomi Grismer, Dolores Goebbert, Ruth Haste and Arline Nagel are more alumni on the payroll. Arline is well known in Arlington for the outstanding Lutheran servicemen's magazine "Buddies" which she edited during the war years. The February issue was the closing of an excellent job.

ANOTHER BRIDGE BUILDER?

Kenny Klehm '43, is now a happy civilian once more. For the last 2 1/2 years his main occupation was that of gunner in the army air corps, but don't ask me in what kind plane. Kenny is taking a refresher course at Dodd and Harris, then plans to major in engineering at the Illinois Institute of Technology next fall.

NOTES OF MUSIC

Bev Pink and Pearl Miller gave nice examples of what the class of '45 can do in the line of entertainment. They both warbled at the Stork Club Jr., sponsored by the Cardinal Saturday night. Bev's rendition of "Love Letters" was especially praiseworthy. It was easy to see she had her heart in it, Lou.

In the future

Things to come — Germanium, a rare metal produced in this country at the rate of only one ton a year, may soon be alloyed with gold to make teeth fillings which will not shrink. It may also assure gold-coated jewelry that lasts longer. An automatic stenographic service has been set up in Portland, Oregon, by ex-servicemen. Wire recording sets are installed in a central location of an office building and hooked to phones of subscribers. A client merely lifts his phone, dictates and soon receives a typewritten letter from the service. An electrical manicuring machine, with attachments for disc filing, cuticle rolling and whisking, nail buffing and oil massaging. A combination bed, hopechest and wardrobe for young people. A new treatment for weather-proofing cement, stone and brick buildings. The compound is said to seal pores of exterior walls without altering their original appearance.

Prickly Heat

One of the problems of mothers with small babies is prickly heat. It is not enough to sponge the baby off frequently to cool him. Wash him also with a soapy washcloth, for dust and perspiration are definite factors in this summer skin irritation. Making sure that skin is really clean is important, so showers should definitely include a gentle soaping, even for older folk who are less susceptible to prickly heat. Small fry who cavort under the lawn sprinkler get cooled but they also get dirty, so make sure they have a proper scrub-up before tumbling into bed.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL
Old man weather seems to affect people's moods as readily as color changes appearance of a chameleon.
On damp days, people with rheumatism wear an expression that suggests they might have just taken a dose of castor oil. They move about with great effort, are irritable and inclined to be bitter. Everything seems to disagree with them, food, clothing, home, children, even the Maker Himself coming in for His share of criticism.
On bright, warm sunny days, they are sitting on the porch and their spirits are high, even though they move a bit stiffly. And they seem to try making up with sweetness for the sour taste they leave in one's mouth during their dark, damp days of suffering.
Some people are drowsy and moody in spirit on cloudy, rain swept days. It takes them longer to answer the door bell on cloudy days, and they come to the door with sleepy eyes, and an irritable expression that suggests they would rather not be bothered.

People are easiest to get along with on cool, bright days. As I deliver my mail, I hear them call cheerfully across the street to one another. On such days they hustle in and out of the house ambitiously.

On days like this, Willie is mother's little angel, and can get away with almost anything, while Mary Ann is the best little girl that ever was, even though yesterday, when it was raining, they were little pests and had no consideration for mother at all.

Wise people take advantage of the effect of weather on people's natures. When the weather is dreary, they are sympathetic and speak in low, conciliatory tones. When it is hot and sultry, they are careful not to cross the hot tempers and sharp tongues they contact. On bright and sunny days, almost anything goes. They match their approach with the weather. That is why a soft spoken, sympathetic salesman can sell you a vacuum cleaner on a cloudy day, when you are feeling sorry because you have to work so hard, while on a bright, sunny day work was play, you felt like a million, and had no time to listen to a salesman's sympathy.

Restore hearing of Barrington girl

A miraculous operation which restored the hearing of Jean Helfvogt, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Helfvogt, 521 Prairie avenue, Barrington, was performed at the Wesley Memorial hospital in Chicago last week.
Jean who lost 70 per cent of her hearing 10 years ago after illness caused by scarlet fever could hear street noises and whispered sounds upon arising from the operating table.
The delicate operation, a fenestration, was performed on her right ear by Dr. Philip Shambaugh, and the surgery consisted in removing part of the fenestra bone and inserting a window in the girl's ear.

Injunction against Park Ridge houses fails in court

The court failed to recognize an attempted injunction on the part of some Park Ridge homeowners against temporary veterans housing now being put up on the edge of that city. The city of Chicago has given authority for the erection, with Park Ridge citizens objecting to the location. Decreased property values of established homes, plus alleged lack of sanitary and health provisions in the new homes, were reasons for the injunction.

This Time of Year

Just Around the Corner

Dear Jane:

Just as I was about to admit that there might be one time of the year when life on a farm isn't too pleasant, a letter arrives from a friend with this enclosure from This Time of Year.

Now is that strange hushed time of year when nature seems to pause. The winds of winter are weary. The weeds, once ranked high in the field, are low and subject. The weathered leaves begin to fall from the oaks that have clutched them fiercely, as the old clutch at little comforts.

The moment is like a pause in a symphony, when the great composer brings the fury of his music to a stop, a rest so faithful and significant that in the silence the listener counts his own loud heartbeats as though they were his last—hoping for and almost dreading the beginning of the new theme in the next measure.

"And what will it be, that melody, but the beginning of spring? The talk of thaw in many runnels, the sounds of birds finding again their voices, of tree toads trilling in chill twilight, of a spade that strikes a stone."

This lovely excerpt is from Donald Culpeper Peattie, in "An Almanac for Moderns." It has a hopeful message that tells me that if I will bear out a little longer with this awful mud that seems to engulf us at the moment, my patience will be rewarded.

Another hopeful sign that spring is just around the corner, was the two bluebirds I saw flitting in and out of the orchard yesterday. They seemed to be particularly interested in an ancient fallen tree at the orchard's edge where Rob and the boys had piled last Fall's pruning. I wonder if bluebirds like to build their nests in rotted wood? If this be true, we have many old tree stumps along the fence row near the road, and I'd like nothing better than hundreds of bluebirds about the place.

Bluebirds! Do they spell peace for you? They always have to me. Peace! How earnestly we wish for it, but how apathetic our attitude towards maintaining it. During and after every conflict in our nation's history, the leaders have promised peace, but every time they have failed. The youth have shed their blood believing in an idealistic war, with not only the hope that it was the war to end all wars, but an honored promise that if they died they would not have done so in vain. And what happened? We erected stone monuments to their memory, and let it go at that.

Recently I learned of a newly formed organization that has decided to DO something about gaining a real peace. And who would have a more deep-seated and unselfish purpose than those people who have lost loved ones in the supreme sacrifice for their country?

This association, "Gold Star War Kin of America," had its beginning in Minneapolis, Minn. It hopes to form groups in every state and town in the Union with the avowed purpose of studying the causes which lead to war, and the rectifying of them. This foundation for peace is to be free from all political interference, nationalistic in character, "acting primarily for the benefit of this nation, incidentally for the benefit of the world at large. It must act fearlessly in the dissemination of such information. It must make recommendations on steps that should be taken to avoid catastrophes such as that through which we have just passed. To be effective, it must be independent, and those who conduct its activities, must beholden to no party and to no political power."

"Its cost—well, if this war cost our government three hundred billion dollars, and the lives of hundreds of thousands of its men and women, should cost really matter? Suppose it did cost some small fraction of that amount, is not peace, or the possibility of peace, well worth such cost?"

"Such an organization would have no votes to garner by its activities, no business loss to incur, no monetary or business gain to make from its decisions, no purpose in its heart, except to let those who died, and those who suffered, and those who paid, speak. Then might we hear them say: The promises that were made to us must be fulfilled. To the four freedoms for which we died, there must be added a new freedom for mankind—freedom for all the generations to come from death by wanton and by needless war."

As a mother and a citizen of this country, I am interested in seeing such an organization succeed. If you, or any of your friends, would like more detailed information, they may write to the "Gold Star War Kin of America," 1004 Roanoke Building, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and they will furnish same.

With love, Mary.

Inverness garden club to exhibit at state show

The Inverness Garden Club will be represented by three fine exhibits in the twentieth annual spring flower show of The Garden Club of Illinois to be held at Marshall Field & Company, Monday, April 8, through Saturday, April 20. It will be the fourth "Fashions in Flowers" the organization has given as a war time show, which took the place of the large Chicago Flower Show given at Navy Pier from 1933 through 1941.

Seventy-three community garden clubs, most of them in or near Chicago, will be represented at the show with one or more exhibits. There will be planted gardens and many classes of flower arrangements.

Mrs. Hubert W. Nelson, Baldwin road, Palatine, is chairman of the committee in charge of the local club's exhibits. Mrs. J. B. McIntosh is president of the Inverness Garden club.

Your weekly treat recipe

Soured Cream Biscuits are much like grandmother's old fashioned biscuits and how we loved them. They are easily made and take only a few minutes to bake, but have a rich goodness all their own. As a matter of fact, for flavor and texture, Soured Cream Biscuits cannot be surpassed.

Soured Cream Biscuits
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1 cup Soured Cream
Sift dry ingredients. Fold into the soured cream. Turn onto a well floured board. Roll lightly, cut, and bake in a hot oven, 450 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes. Yield—16 biscuits.

TALES of the STREET

CACTUS TOLD US

That famous Hackbarth cactus plant told us that the winter wasn't over yet and that snow and cold weather were coming. And sure enough last week-end we had quite a return to winter with a blizzard Friday night that, for a while, threatened to be a regular old "swing cat" as George Butler, the Katydid weather forecaster, would call it.

We only hope that that blame cactus will be satisfied with that young edition of winter and that we won't see a lot of snow piled fence high before spring really comes. Of course we won't be surprised at anything as long as that confounded cactus out there at Silent Oaks is in bloom.

SPRING BIRDS

The balmy lamb-like entry of March brought with it a whole lot of our spring bird colony. Following on the heels of that warm, rainy, foggy weather about ten days ago the birds really began to put in their appearance.

Robins could be seen hopping about the lawns in search of food or swinging on a branch of some tree or shrub, the red wing blackbirds were fluttering around the bushes and tall weeds about the marshes, which is their favorite hangout. The grackles with their glossy plumage, flashing their changeable dark colors in the sun, were busy scratching leaves under the shubbery or sending their throaty notes from a perch in the pine trees.

Out in the open prairie the plaintive note of the meadow lark could be heard in the early morning as that bird of the prairies greeted the chilly new day. An occasional morning dove has been seen here and there about the countryside and the pretty little blue birds have made their appearance in the woodlands.

We don't see many blue birds in town anymore since all the fences have been taken down. Those fences used to be their favorite perches.

One of the early comers whom we have missed so far is the flicker. His strident call and his early morning hammering on the drain pipe usually comes right along with the first robins. And we do miss him because for the last several years we have had one of those flickers or his descendants that has hammered on our drain pipe at exactly the same time every morning.

No need for an alarm clock, watch or other sort of time piece during the early spring days when that fellow was pounding the drain pipe and calling his mate early in the morning.

LAKE PALATINE

Columbus had a precarious crossing of the ocean before he landed in America and Bert Summers had a precarious crossing of an acre of Lake Palatine out at the edge of the village along Brookview street before he landed in town. That old skating pond has grown to be quite a lake during the spring rains and Bert says that he wants to get in his application early for the fishing and hunting rights to the lake.

He figures that after it is stocked with game and fish and a few duck blinds are erected and some live decoys staked out that it really ought to develop into quite a fishing and hunting preserve.

Bert Summers' ambition to develop a game preserve north of the village on what he calls Lake Palatine reminds us of the "days way back when" spring hunting season used to be permitted. Our old stamping grounds in the spring hunting season used to be east of the village and many a morning have we squatted in a duck blind right in the middle of what now is Palatine Park and banged away at wild ducks and geese going over. And one of our favorite Snipe shooting grounds was the old Holste slough and the jack snipe used to zoom out from that boggy marsh land that is now covered with new homes. We also used to use a rowboat along Salt Creek from Palatine road to the railroad tracks. Along the creek where the stylish Post and Paddock club now stands used to be another fine Snipe hangout and also a fine place for wild flowers in the meadows back from the creek.

The march of time and progress have surely changed things but after the recent spring rains some of that country looks much like it used to be back in those spring hunting days.

LOST AGAIN

Frank's Pastry Shop is having a tough time getting lost from the OPA records or the OPA has a hard time in keeping the local bakery in the right place. Not long ago it was sugar. The OPA couldn't find where there was ever had been a bakery in Palatine. And now recently the sales tax.

Frank gets a notice to show cause why he hadn't paid his sales tax since he had been in business and all the time he had the receipts for his sales tax in his files. It begins to look as if there will have to be an act of congress or a presidential directive to show the OPA that Palatine really has a bakery shop and that said shop is doing its damndest to follow OPA rules and regulations even if the OPA does persist in losing that bakery all the time.

A YEAR AGO

A year ago now folks were planting gardens. We made our first plantings of peas, lettuce, radishes, etc. on March 14 last year. The weather was fine and warm, the soil worked as nicely as it ever did and our record shows that the plantings of March 14 were up on March 25 and that we made the first cultivation on April 1.

But this year it's a different story and a different kind of Spring and anyhow, as George Wilson says, "It doesn't pay to plant so early." There is lots of time between now and May 15 to make a garden.

Designed for Junior Wearers

TODAY'S juniors know their fashions—and can have them too.

Proof that the important Spring trends have been adapted to junior requirements was underscored in a recent showing of such clothes by the newly-organized Junior Fashion Creators of New York, an affiliation of the New York Dress Institute. Styled for age as well as size, the fresh young fashions just launched reflect such outstanding influences as the rounded look, the bosomy long torso with a full skirt below, midriff emphasis, the skirt-and-top look, the vogue for stripes and the vogue for grey.

Pictured today is one of the outstanding silk silhouettes of the new season—the bolero—smartly adapted for the shorter figure and shorter waistline. Other important suits for juniors are the basque suit featuring the new rounded look, the peplum suit and the capelet suit. Two main silhouettes in dresses—rounded contours with "barrel" skirts, and the slim torso look with elongated waistline—are equally represented in junior fashions. Typical of the former trend is the dressy date dress shown today, youthful tied with a bow at the throat above a keyhole neckline.

Grey and white checked wools make the Junior bolero suit, above, with Kelly green stripe down the sleeves and matching midriff band on the skirt. The blouse is white crepe. Right, navy and white checked taffeta cut in waist suit for a one-piece dress with navy crepe skirt.

Lutheran church service paper in last issue

Commend 3 years service of local young people

With the mailing of the February issue of Buddies, Lutheran servicemen's paper, to every family of the St. Peter Lutheran congregation in Arlington Hgts. and to all the members still in the service, the publication of this magazine ceased. Of the 182 men and 3 women of that congregation who were called to the colors, only approximately 40 men and one woman remain.

For three years a group of young people of the Arlington Heights Lutheran church published this little paper in the interest of their men and women who served in the armed forces. Their motto was "They shall not march alone"; their purpose was to keep the young people with the church through reading of its activities.

From its conception in February, 1943, the contents virtually were the same. First, there was a letter of greeting, admonition, and hope from one of two pastors; a sermon by the other; items about the home town and home church; news of the boys themselves as they served in every line of duty; a P. S. section which carried news of new industries, engagements, weddings, births, deaths, birthdays of the fellows and a bit of humor. Added to these staple sections were various features.

A mailing continues

Until the last of the men received, a mailing will continue to go to those remaining in the service; however, this will contain only a pastor's letter, a sermon, and news from home.

In the beginning the staff was composed of only six people, two of whom were later called into the service. These were Ruth Schulte, the first editor who became a WAVE, and the Rev. H. C. Fricke, the originator and advisor who entered the Army of Chaplains in October, 1943, but continued to send a letter and sermon in alternate months. Arlene Nagel, Harriet Fricke, Dorothy Hoeft and Harold Miller were the other four on the original staff, all of whom remained until the end except Harriet, who entered Valpo University in September, 1945. Kurt Meyer and Donald Lussman served on the production staff for a time before entering the service; Bruce Kempf edited the sports section before joining the navy.

After Ruth Schulte resigned as editor, Arlene was appointed as her successor; Dorothy took over the "News from the Boys" section; Harriet replaced her in the "News from Home" division; and Gertrude Hinz was appointed production manager while Harold retained his artist's position.

Others who were on the staff at one time or another were Ruth and Lorraine Hoeft, Leona and June Nagel, Lorna Meyer, Ruth Heid, Lois Kranz, Lorraine Landeck, Radke, Lorna Pfingst-Schroeder, Gertrude Bornkamp, all on the production staff; Doris Pape and Lois Fricke, writing the "News from Home" pages and Norman Nebel editing the sports column; Betty Hogreve and Jeanne Miller assisting Harold in the art department. When the Rev. L. V. Stephan was called to replace Chaplain Fricke at the congregation, he became advisor for the interim and alternated writing the Pastor's Letter and the sermon.

Win honors

Altho publishing a 16-page monthly magazine in spare time demanded an inestimable amount of physical and mental labor, self-denial, and persistence, these young people declare that they enjoyed this "act of love" and feel that the many letters from the boys from every part of the world and their personal expressions of gratitude now are sufficient retribution. They cherish the many seasonal cards and other means of greeting.

One of the more thrilling experiences came when the local American Legion honored them with the presentation of a Citation of Merit from the State Department of the Legion at the special party for them in April, 1944.

The first birthday of the paper was celebrated by the congregation in a Candle Light Prayer Service in February, 1944, and by a banquet given them by the Ladies and Dorcas Aids.

Also held dear is a cup the paper won as the only paper of such a nature to be judged "Superior" in the Northern Illinois District Walther League in June, 1944. The rating was based on contents, make-up, neatness, originality, illustrations. There was much comment on the unusual colored silk screen covers, made by the artist. This award won them the right to enter the International Talent Festival at St. Louis in July, 1944, where they again were judged the finest paper of any entered from the 40 Districts comprising the International organization.

While this paper was published by a group of Walther Leaguers, it was encouraged and financed by special congregational collections and individual and society gifts.

George Washington

As a student at Palatine high I am in favor of all the holidays possible. And I agreed with the Tales of the Street editor a couple of weeks ago. I inquired around as to why no holiday. Then found out.

It seems state law requires 185 school days, less legal school holidays, teacher institutes, etc. Guess the state bigwigs figure only Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years, Lincoln's Birthday and Good Friday warrant "knocking off." Evidently they figure anyone could have been father of his country, and failed to honor Washington.

Anyway, such a holiday would have extended the school year another day. I'm again that. Sooner school is over and vacation starts, the better, I say.

War memorial

Paddock Publications has received for this column the viewpoint of an Arlington Heights resident regarding a suitable war memorial in that town. It is a very pertinent article, especially because the Arlington Heights Community Council decided this week to continue the July 4th celebration for the benefit of the war memorial fund.

The writer of the article for the Fence Post says in part:

"It is imperative, if the memorial is to become a reality that a definite plan be adopted and goals set now. The successful completion of this project will do much for the community spirit of Arlington Heights."

"Let us build a monumental building, costing upwards of $50,000 to be located on public owned park property for use as a public library, and kindred purposes."

The "viewpoint" of the writer appears on the front page of this week's edition of the Arlington Heights Herald.

Palatine school

I sincerely feel that without your generous and intelligent cooperation, reorganization would not have fared so well at the polls as it did. I wish, at this time, to thank you personally on behalf of our Association for your unselfish efforts to give the boys and girls in Palatine Township the better educational advantages they deserve as future American citizens.

You have proven that intelligent cooperation between the press and the schools does benefit the children of our Township. I trust that our days of constructive cooperation are just beginning, now that we have accomplished our first steps. There is no reason why the press and the schools, America's greatest educational agencies, cannot continue their constructive cooperation for the boys and girls of Palatine Township.

Brahms again featured by orchestra

Desire Defauw continues the Chicago Symphony Orchestra's Brahms cycle at the Thursday evening Friday afternoon concert (March 21 and 22) this week, at Orchestra Hall, with an all-Brahms program featuring Rudolf Serkin, distinguished pianist, playing the B Flat Major Concerto No. 2.

For the Popular Concert, Mr. Defauw is featuring the well known Chicago singers, Kathryn Witwer, soprano and Ruth Slater, alto. Miss Witwer will be heard in three songs by John Alden Carpenter and La Primavera d'Or, by Glazounov-La Forge. Miss Slater will sing the Debussy Air de Lia from "L'Enfant Prodigue." The Mozart G Minor and three Wagner "Lohengrin" excerpts complete the program.

Three principals of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra will be heard in the solo portions of Handel's Concerto Grosso No. 10 in D Minor, when the orchestra presents its weekly radio concert at 8 p. m. on Wednesday, March 20, over WCFL.

The soloists are John Weicher, concertmaster; Franz Polesny, principal of the second violins and Dudley Powers, principal cellist.

Concertgoers will have only one opportunity this season to hear America's finest orchestra of young musicians—the Civic Orchestra of Chicago, training school of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Hans Lange will conduct the concert on Sunday afternoon, March 17, at Orchestra Hall.

When washing woodwork, use dry suds from whipped soap jelly to prevent streaking walls. Use a strip of cardboard to protect the wall next to door frames and baseboards from getting splashed.

The nights are getting warmer here and during the day the sun is just right for taking sun baths which are so beneficial to ailing folks.

It Happened Here

Vaughan's catalogue: Now what does that remind us of? Not at all, not at all, not of gardens and young onions, no, of sunflower seeds which we buy by the ten pound sack from their seed store, "ask for the pet department." We will venture the guess that if all the sunflower seeds we have bought since November 1st, '45, were laid end to end, they would cover the geographical state of Kansas, embroder Oklahoma, encompass a large section of Nebraska and return to Illinois by way of the railroad right of way; in that case, we do not guess, we know the trail would be followed by three greedy grey squirrels, never missing a seed, until they showed up at the back door ready to gobble the next handful tossed to the cardinals; by that time there would be two more squirrels who would be only too eager to help consume Mr. Vaughan's seeds for which we pay and pay. Speaking of this and that, we should, like to know where Mr. Vaughan raises his sunflower seeds and does he have a squirrel proof fence or some sort of U. N. O. agreement with the varmints? Because we can't have one sunflower stalk bring its seeds to maturity—the squirrels can't wait for that.

Your home

Have you ever been through a bakery? Last week I was taken on a tour through one of the country's new, large, modern bakeries—and I was simply amazed at the many precautions taken to assure the bread, rolls, and other things that they turn out in just mountainous quantities.

Did you know that bread wrapped in waxed paper is scarcely touched by human hands between baking operations and delivery to you? I was really fascinated as I watched this process. As each loaf of bread comes from the oven it is automatically wrapped in a waxed paper that is odorless and tasteless and, of course, absolutely sanitary. As it is wrapped, it passes through an electrically heated machine that melts the wax temporarily—automatically sealing the ends. The baker explained to me that this heat sealing creates a perfect protective wrap—a vacuum-like enclosure that safeguards the freshness and actually seals in the flavor of your bread.

And it's so easy to keep bread fresh after the loaf has been opened! I've found that by carefully re-closing the waxed paper wrapping, my bread stays moist and fresh much longer. I can save several slices of bread every week. And... with the newspapers and radios telling us of the starving people of Europe—and the need to send grains and food to them— isn't this an easy way to help?

If all the millions and millions of American housewives would take this simple precaution—millions and millions of loaves of bread would be saved for those who need it so badly in Europe!

Tree-pruning is more science less fashion

Fashions in pruning apple trees suffered almost as many changes as fashions in ladies' hats until the development of agricultural science changed tree-pruning from a fashion to a science, says W. A. Ruth, horticulturist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

At one point in history, fashion coincided with what is known now to be fairly good scientific practice. From a book published in 1687, Professor Ruth points out the statement: "But the lower the Tree brancheth itself and spreads, the fairer and sooner will it attain to be a tree, and the greater burden will it bear of Fruit, and these better and larger." Experimental evidence upholds this early statement, Ruth says.

Apple trees now are headed reasonably low, being started so that the lowest framework branches leave the trunk between 12 and 24 inches from the ground. Pruning a young apple tree is difficult and complicated. Ruth emphasizes that one should prune to accomplish specific objectives and not do haphazard cutting merely because it is a traditional practice.

Surplus goods

Approximately 460,000 new adjustable heavy duty pipe wrenches declared surplus by the army will be offered to priority claimants, including war veterans, and to plumbing and mill supply houses, and wholesale and retail hardware dealers in a nationwide disposal sale beginning March 4, 1946, the War Assets Corporation announced today. The wrenches originally cost the government about $420,000, and range in size from 8 to 36 inches. Manufactured by well-known tool producers, they are of standard type, and will be sold at fixed prices established for each level of trade.

Some 480,000 new 5-lb. pick mattocks, declared surplus by the army and originally costing the government $338,557, will be offered wholesale and retail dealers in a nationwide disposal sale beginning March 9, the War Assets Corporation announced today. Described as standard type pick mattocks, finished in black, with a 3 1/2 inch width and overall length of 19 1/2 inches, they are new and in excellent condition. They will be offered especially to hardware, machinery and mill supply dealers.

Sugar beet labor prospects better

Several weeks of recruitment of sugar beet workers at San Antonio, Texas, indicate that "an appreciably larger number will be available than has been possible for several years," according to M. C. Henderson, executive secretary of the Beet Growers' Employment Committee, Inc. He said that the situation improves as recruitment progresses. Predicting that at least 8,000 workers will be obtained, Henderson reported "a degree of real interest in beet work such as I have not seen in years." Responsible is release of civilian employees from military installations and discharge of military veterans, he declared. As a result, applicants already are pressing to be sent to the sugar beet areas, and emergency farm labor officials are hoping for an early spring in the Midwest so workers can get in the fields upon arrival, he said.

Notion outmoded to give worn-out land 'best cure'

The notion of giving worn-out farm land a "rest cure" has fortunately just about passed, says J. C. Hackleman, professor of crops extension at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. At one time, he reports, farmers thought that if they put "tired acres" into pasture the land could be rested two or three years and would come back, like a man following a good vacation, as fresh and vigorous as ever. "Calcium leaches out of the soil and every ton of beef, pork or mutton or milk produced on these pastures removes nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium and calcium or lime just as surely as does a crop of corn, oats, wheat or hay," Hackleman says. "In addition, as these permanent pastures become less productive they provide less cover, and the result is more loss through erosion, until on rolling pastures the present crop is largely weeds or unpalatable weed grasses. At least half of the two million Illinois acres devoted to permanent pasture is just barely producing enough to pay the taxes."

But these worn pastures are not hopeless, according to the crops specialist, and the response of most of them to treatment is almost miraculous. Five simple steps will transform the average worn-out pasture into a productive acreage in one or, at most, two years. The steps are to test the soil and treat it with needed minerals, disc these minerals thoroughly while preparing a reasonably good seedbed, reseed with a mixture of legumes and grasses, control grazing for at least a year and clip weeds, giving the legumes and grasses a chance.

Because of an increase of cultivated acreages during the war, a greater acreage is now really ready for legumes than before the war, Hackleman says. A majority of the fields limed in recent years have not yet grown a legume, he believes, and therefore have had no opportunity to show the maximum benefit from the 16 million tons spread on Illinois

State livestock control to be explained Monday meet

Northern Illinois farmers are invited to attend a meeting to be held on Monday, March 18 at 1:30 p. m. in the Farm Bureau office, 110 1/2 East Jackson street, Woodstock, to hear a discussion of the livestock disease control measures that are being administered by the state department of agriculture, Arnold P. Benson, director of the department, announced today.

"The last session of the Illinois legislature made some important changes in the law affecting livestock disease control," said Director Benson, "and the department is interested in explaining the new measures that have been adopted to as many Illinois farmers as is possible."

"Among the important changes in the law is a provision that effective on July 1, 1947, all livestock becomes subject to state regulations and the program that will be discussed at the Woodstock meeting is to inform Illinois farmers of the steps that are being taken to prepare herd owners for that date."

"Emphasis during the 16 months that remain before July 1, 1947, will be placed on a calfhood vaccination program and the state department of agriculture, through its livestock division, will provide the vaccines and the veterinary service to permit the vaccination of all calves between the ages of 4 and 8 months. It is hoped in this method to have an immunized herd population on Illinois farms at the time the new state law becomes effective."

Farmers warned to check upon stone quality

Farmers are warned to pay special attention to quality when buying limestone these days.

In the rush to meet the expanding demand for limestone, some producers are selling stone of poorer quality. While the limestone comes from the same quarries as previously, some quarries are failing to crush the stone finely enough for effective soil neutralization.

Although no laws govern limestone quality, samples are collected from quarries and given fitness ratings. Ratings are reported to county farm advisers, from whom farmers can obtain information about the quality of stone produced in local quarries.

The scientific reason for finely ground stone is explained thus by professor Kurtz: Limestone does not dissolve immediately in the soil. Each particle of limestone neutralizes the tiny area of soil just around it. With coarse stone, the particles are too few and far between to neutralize all the soil effectively.

Kurtz adds the suggestion that farmers check their stone after it has been loaded on the truck because of a few reports that quarries have filled orders with coarse road stone when they ran out of agricultural stone.

Illinois possesses an abundance of high-grade limestone. The farmers' problem is chiefly to see that it gets crushed properly. While the majority of producers continue prewar standards of quality, the farmer is wise to check with his farm adviser instead of taking chances when buying limestone.

MAC SAYS

GERALD A. McElroy

This is state tournament week and a lot of coaches from this area will be seeing the finals at Champaign. I am happy to see that Coach Eugene deLacey's Dundee cagers are again in the "Sweet Sixteen." They have the stuff to go far but will be handicapped by lack of strong reserve material. Still they are in the weakest bracket of the meet and we think they have a good chance to win their first two games and reach the semi-finals. Anything can happen in tournament play, however.

Considering the caliber of some of the teams in the finals tournament it is a shame that teams like Waukegan, Maine Township, Glenbard and even Arlington Heights, Niles and Crystal Lake cannot be down there. There are some areas of the state which could not beat the best in the Northwest and Northeast Conferences but lack of strong competition allows mediocre teams to reach the state finals.

Arlington lost close games to state finalists

Arlington Heights can feel some measure of satisfaction in the fact that the team which eliminated them is the representative of this area in the state finals. Also Tilden Tech, Chicago City champ and a state tourney entrant, only beat the Cardinals three points in a nip and tuck ball game in midseason.

Pick champion to breeze to state title

It is pretty hard to predict state tournament results. However, we usually take a guess at them. Champaign will breeze through the tournament to have their first state championship. They have lost only one game and have state tournament experience as several regulars were on last year's second place team. It will be the 17th time Champaign has been in the select 16. We expect Champaign to meet and beat East Rockford in the semi-finals. In the opposite bracket we expect Centralia to beat Dundee in the semi-finals and then lose to Champaign in the final game.

First round picks

In the first round it looks to us like Decatur over Pana, Dundee to whip Quincy, Centralia to oust a very strong Kewanee team and Robinson to beat Pontiac in the upper bracket. In the first round of the lower bracket we like Rockford East over Tilden Tech, Collinsville to beat Cathedral of Springfield, Marion to whip Calumet City and Champaign to trounce Galesburg.

First round schedule and team records

Upper bracket
Pana (28-5) vs. Decatur (26-10).
Quincy (21-7) vs. Dundee (28-2).
Centralia (27-9) vs. Kewanee (25-4).
Pontiac (24-3) vs. Robinson (30-2).

Lower bracket

Tilden of Chicago (19-5) vs. Rockford East (21-3).
Cathedral of Springfield (22-11) vs. Collinsville (29-9).
Marion (29-7) vs. Thornton Fractional of Calumet City (25-4).
Champaign (34-11) vs. Galesburg (20-6).

Revive Naperville indoor relays

A war casualty for the past four years, the Naperville high school indoor relays will again be held in the North Central College field house next week, Saturday, March 23.

Coach J. C. Trapp of Bensenville may enter a few boys and Coach Welty of Palatine may take a few of the better prospects down to the meet more for experience than in any hope of winning points. However most of the schools in the meet have had limited indoor work this year so the marks will probably not be up to pre-war standard. The following week, March 30, come the big Oak Park indoor relays, one of the best high school indoor meets in the country.

Palatine opens schedule at Libertyville April 5

Coach Welty has a big squad of fair performers practicing at Palatine with the opening meet just a few weeks away. Palatine may not have many outstanding boys but will have a lot of fair boys capable of winning points and may have some pretty good relay teams. The lettermen are limited in number and include Don Wente and Bob Henker in the distance and middle distance events, Leon LeBaron, 440 and high jump; Bob Moehling and Stewart Werner, pole vault; Ray Howes, pole vault and discus; Stan Arendt, 100 and 220; Dilwin Rogers, hurdles; sophomore Stevenson, broad jump and sprints; Smith, low hurdles. Others who won minor letters last year and should be good for points this year are Muehlhelt, Sander, Hahn, Ball, Birks, D. Weinacht, and the Zoellick brothers.

West Chicago coach resigns

Don Gamble who has coached West Chicago athletic teams for many years and has always had a strong class "B" entry in the Palatine Relays has resigned his position, effective April 15 and will move to Colorado where he will go into the construction business with his brother. No question there will be a lot more money in that line than school teaching.

Tom Kouzmanoff is pro cage official

Tommy Kouzmanoff, former Bensenville High star of quite a number of years ago, a resident of Arlington Heights, and at present prep sports editor of the Chicago Herald American, has had a busy schedule of pro league games to officiate this year. This past week Tommy officiated at Fort Wayne where the Chicago Gears upset the 1945 champ Ft. Wayne Zollners. In another week the Chicago Stadium will be the scene of the world championship professional cage tournament sponsored by the Chicago Herald American.

Busse Legel Lane Nelson Cannon average 60 pts.

Stroker, Wille, rate second

by G. A. McElroy (Sports Ed.)

Arlington, Crystal Lake, and Niles, leaders in the recent Northeast Conference basketball race each place three men on the mythical all conference squad selected this week by the Cook County Herald. The team was picked on the basis of suggestions of six of the eight coaches of the circuit.

Arlington Heights champion Cardinals placed George Busse at forward on the first five and Wille and Stroker on the second team. Busse was a consistent scorer and excellent ball handler. Wille had big scoring nights and was less consistent than Busse, but the pair of them gave Arlington the best forward combination in the loop. Neither man was among the leading scorers due to the fact that Arlington's team was so well balanced that scoring was evenly divided.

Stroker made second team center. His defensive work was tops in the league and as a feeder on offense he set up more scoring situations for his team mates than for himself. Stroker, who stands six four and weighs 230 pounds, still has another year of competition, being the only junior rating as high as second team recognition.

Lakers place two

Crystal Lake placed two men on the first team. Nelson, a small but hard driving forward, was one of the top point getters of the league. He broke up many games with his hot shooting when most needed. Nelson was a real money player. Harold Legel, star on Crystal Lake cage team for three seasons, played both guard and forward and sparked the Lakers to a fine court year.

Lane of Niles at center, and Cannon of Warren at guard received the most votes for the all star team. Lane was high scorer of the league with 179 points for a 15 a game average. Standing six feet six, Lane was very active. He could pivot either left or right, was a good rebounder, and threw most of the long out of bounds passes which started the famous Niles fast break. Mueller, a very consistent performer at both guard and forward for Niles was a second team selection.

Don Cannon of Warren, who was scoring runner up with 161 points, was a consistent point getter. Cannon was held to six points on two occasions but had highs of 21 and 22. However, for the most part he hit a consistent pace of about 14 points. Cannon played forward this season but previously had been one of the better guards of the league. That is why we have placed him at guard along with Legel. This quintet of first team players scored an average of 60 points a game in the 12 conference engagements of the past season.

Two boys who played on less successful teams but were probably as good performers as some of the first team selections were George Evans of Lake Forest at forward and Jim Drake of Libertyville at guard. These boys were the leading scorers and team leaders at their respective schools.

Evans scored 138 points including 40 free throws while Drake had 134 points, including 46 free throws. These boys were free throw leaders of the league. Evans' scoring ranked from eight to 16 points a game while little five feet eight Drake ranked from seven to 17 counters per contest.

Among third team players top mention should go to Huffman of Leyden. This ranging red head was one of the best performers in the league. The fact that his real talent was somewhat hidden by the weakness of his team is probably all that kept him from being a first team selection.

The Northeast had a good year and we feel confident that many of the boys who have been named on the all star teams will make good college material if they choose to continue their education. Legel, Cannon, Busse, and Evans were also among the best football players in the league.

Card frosh win tourney

Arlington played Libertyville and Lake Forest played Warren in the first round of the Lake Forest Freshman Tournament March 9.

Arlington defeated Libertyville easily 28-16, using substitutes liberally. Lake Forest defeated Warren in the other morning game.

Libertyville defeated Warren to take the consolation game in the afternoon session. Arlington played brilliantly in the final to win, 47 to 20, from Lake Forest.

Arlington's starting five of Stockdale, Oberman, Robinson, Thiese and Meyer played only 17 minutes of the game and scored 44 points hitting 55% of their shots. On defense they held Lake Forest to 3 field goals during the 17 minutes, without having a single foul charged against them. Season's record follows with Arlington Frosh score first:

The February report released by Conrad F. Becker, State Treasurer, reveals an increase of $14,779,003.93 in all state funds. Transfers from the Occupational Tax Fund are the principal reason for the increase of $6,352,116.82 in the General Revenue Fund. Regular Funds for the month increased $8,279,766.24 which can be attributed to the large Motor Vehicle Tax collection. Becker reports that in spite of payments for Unemployment Compensation totalling $6,000,000.00, Trust Funds increased $6,499,237.69. Quarterly payments by employers in the Unemployment Trust Fund is given as the reason for the increase.

Way back when

10 YEARS AGO—MAR. 13, 1936

Arlington Heights

Students of the high school had the privilege of witnessing talks in their own auditorium Feb. 26 when "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" was shown as the feature. It was in the nature of an experiment with sound equipment in the local high school auditorium.

Mrs. H. C. Klehm entertained a birthday group Tuesday in her home on Rand rd.

The twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Goerger dated Mar. 7, but the Choral Society of St. James Church decided it was none to late to give them a surprise. Thirty-five members and guests of the choir gave a party at their home and presented them with a beautiful alabaster lamp.

Palatine

Dr. C. A. Starck had a narrow escape from serious injury Tuesday when his car was hit and overturned by a candy truck which had ran through the red light at Northwest Hwy. and Harlem ave.

Lowell Haemker was tendered a surprise in honor of his birthday last Tuesday evening. It also being the birthday of Mr. Verloet, it was made a double party. The evening was spent playing cards and dancing.

Lorraine Stoeckel entertained many friends on her birthday Sunday afternoon and evening.

Members of the Palatine fire department were hosts to their ladies Wednesday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Roselle

THE TAM O'SHANTER OF 1946

Chicago's Tam O'Shanter Country Club, home of the world's richest golf tournament, will look like this architect's drawing by the time of the All-American Golf Tournament to be held there July 22 to 28. George S. May, president of the club and sponsor of the $50,000 Men's Open, Women's Open and Amateur, has announced a $250,000 construction and improvement program of the club property of which modernization and enlargement of the clubhouse is the largest item.

Your teeth

Focal Infection

(Contributed by the Committee on Dental Health Education of the Chicago Dental Society)

The strong "he-man" type of individual is loath to believe that a tiny abscess at the root end of a tooth can seriously affect his health, but dentists and physicians are agreed that such a seemingly innocuous disturbance can be a grave danger to the entire system.

Technically, such nests of bacteria are known as foci of infection. In these days of camera enthusiasts, every one knows what a "focus" is—a concentrated image. The same reasoning can be applied to the concentrated collections of bacteria at the tips of diseased teeth.

The immediate danger of focal infection is that poisonous matter—disease germs—may be fed into the blood stream, and organic illness detrimental to the general health of the individual result.

In the acute or chronic abscess, infection is present and the germs are either mixed with the good and swallowed or are absorbed directly into the body through the blood and lymph streams.

There also occur "pyorrhea pockets," where bacteria are harbored free from disturbance by the oral fluids and under conditions of heat and moisture ideal for propagation and growth.

It is generally accepted that the absorption of materials from decayed teeth and diseased gums tends to lower the resistance of the body to communicable diseases of various kinds. Infections of the joints, heart, kidneys, etc., are in many cases attributable to the presence of focal infection around the roots of one or more teeth.

A tooth may look perfectly normal and give little or no pain, but there still may be an abscess at the tip of a root. As this condition may be revealed by the dental x-ray film, it is excellent health insurance to make periodic visits to your dentist for a general checkup. It is far better to lose a tooth or two than to run the risk of focal infection.

'Dark of the Moon'

entertaining to all fans

Opening at the Blackstone theatre eight weeks ago with 100 per cent approval from six Chicago critics, "Dark of the Moon" is one of the best entertainments of the year. Whether the theatre-goer is looking for song, story, color, ensemble, humor, dancing or music, all can be found in legend of the South.

Based on one of the many versions of the old folk ballad, "Barbara Allen," the play recounts the brief career as a human of John, the witch boy, who marries Barbara Allen. The racy mountain dialect, the folk songs, the dominant motive of sex, eerie dancing of Witch Girls in Esther Junger's atmospheric choreography, the orgiastic emotions of the revival meeting, the half-sinister, half-tender romance of John and Barbara, give "Dark of the Moon" a primal quality.

The cast of thirty is too large to allow mention of all here, but includes Richard Hart as the witch-boy; Carol Stone, youngest daughter of the celebrated Fred Stone, as Barbara; A. Winfield Hoeny, as Preacher Hagler; Marguerite de Anguerra, Peggy Ann Holmes, Frances Goforth, Millie-cent Coleman, James Lamphier and Agnes Scott Yost. An orchestra of 18 provides the music.

condition may be revealed by the dental x-ray film, it is excellent health insurance to make periodic visits to your dentist for a general checkup. It is far better to lose a tooth or two than to run the risk of focal infection.

'Laugh, fan, laugh' theme of Ice Capades to open Sunday

"Laugh, fan, laugh!" will be the password at the Chicago Ice Capades from March 17th through April 3 when Ice-Capades of 1946 is presented for a run of 18 nights and Sunday matinees March 24 and 31. For this year's edition of the famed frosted fantasy is loaded with comedy.

First of all, there is Eric Waite, the frozen-faced comic, who ranks as the nation's No. 1 ice funnyman. Then there is Larry Jackson, one of the truly great laugh getters in the business. And, too, Al Surette and Leo Loeb, who turn inside out with back bends, wrong-end spread eagles and other laugh-provoking stunts.

Chuckie Stein and Nate Walley, the latter world's undefeated professional figure skating champion, present a travesty on the Apache dance, which is one of the most hilarious items ever presented on ice. Then there are a flock of others, including Esco La Rue, who comes close to stealing the show with his "unscheduled ice feats".

Of course, the Ice-Capades is not limited to comedy. There are ten gorgeous and brilliantly lighted and costumed production numbers, plus 90 lovely "Ice-Cap" Pets of the ballets, ensembles and precision lines, and such stars as Donna Atwood, "The Old Sragothies", Bobby Specht, Red McCarthy, Dench and Stewart, Phil Taylor, Condon and Bohland, the Benoit Sisters, Hub Trio, Jimmy Lawrence, Ann Robinson and Trixie, the juggling cutie.

The Chicago Arena calls attention to the fact that the 18 night performances will start at 8:15 promptly and the two matinees at 2:15. An hour's organ concert by Mildred Fitzpatrick at the console of the Arena's $50,000 Wurlitzer will precede each performance. Tickets for the entire limited engagement are now on sale at the Arena box office and at The Hub, State and Jackson, and mail orders are being accepted at the Arena.

Civil service

Men who can work with their hands, store away materials and assist in construction and maintenance work will be among the first to have an opportunity to work for Uncle Sam on a permanent basis, according to announcements sent out today by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

For the first time in four years the government is offering permanent employment through the federal civil service.

Applications for jobs at common labor will be received by the labor board at the U. S. Naval Ordnance plant, Forest Park, Ill., until March 25.

The announcement states that the examination is "for the purpose of filling existing and anticipated vacancies on a permanent basis, and replacing present War Service indefinite and temporary appointees who do not file, who fail to qualify or whose names do not come within reach for consideration for probational appointment."

Okinawa
From Okinawa comes word of Raymond Schneider of Arlington Heights.
"Just a few lines to let you know that I'm still on this island of Okinawa. For awhile your paper was coming through swell but now the mail service is very slow and we are lucky to even get a letter dated November 9th so you can see what I mean."
"I sure did enjoy the Cook County Herald and hope it again catches up with me. As yet I haven't run across anyone from around Arlington or Wheeling but several of my friends back home saw my address which you printed several months ago. You see your paper is doing a good job in keeping us posted on the whereabouts of our friends, both at home and in the service."
"It sound like you folks back in Illinois have had a cold winter. Here the weather is still nice. The lowest temperature here has been about 45 degrees and it gets about 75 degrees during the day. The rainy season will be starting soon and that means rough driving for these coral roads really get slippery when wet."
"This island has changed a lot since we came here in October. They are continually building roads and bridges, and warehouses and quansons huts have sprung up all over this Naha area."
"We are still in tents but are very comfortable with plywood floors and sides and have a nice mess hall built."
"So far the only entertainment we get here is movies. They are usually old pictures but still are appreciated for they give us something to do in the long evenings."
"The rumors are very good and we may get back sooner than we had hoped. It sure will be swell to get back and see all the old pals again. Until then I'll have to keep up this letter writing and guarantee I'll appreciate all your letters, so keep me posted with an occasional letter."
His address is: Cpl. R. E. Schneider, 36941612, 164 QM Trk Co, APO 331, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Veterans may have patient treatment for disabilities
Veterans who have disabilities incurred in service may be entitled to out-patient treatment provided a disability pension claim has been filed and the Veterans' Administration has granted "service connection".
If the veteran was discharged for disability (CDD discharge), he may in emergency, request treatment for the CDD disability even though the Vets Adm has not yet made a decision on his claim. In all cases he must make a written request for the treatment to the Vets Adm.
Service Officer Walter S. Haynes at 41 So Prospect Ave. (above Walgreens) Park Ridge, will assist all veterans in filing these and any other papers relating to out-patient or other benefits due them.

Veterans losing discharges may secure certificate
Many veterans have lost their discharge papers and are disappointed to learn they cannot secure an exact duplicate.
Service Officer Walter Haynes at 41 So. Prospect (above Walgreens) Park Ridge will assist veterans in filing for a "Certificate in lieu of lost Discharge," which is the only document the Army, Navy or Marine Corps will issue when the original discharge is lost or destroyed.
This "certificate" does not contain all the information given on the original, and for this reason veterans are urged to record discharges and make use of a certified copy when filing for various benefits.

Aye, Aye, Girls
Washington's staid navy department switchboard, which handles more than 60,000 calls a day, has turned as salty as a talker on a battlewagon's bridge. No longer do operators answer with, "I'll get your number, sir," or even just plain, "Yes, sir." Now it's "Aye, aye, sir."

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

TED: "Clem and I were wonderin' what you thought of that new movie about the chronic alcoholic, Judge. Understand you saw it before we did."

OLD JUDGE: "Well...it's true most of us never see a case as extreme as that in real life because they are so few and far between. But it does point out one thing...chronic alcoholics are abnormal people and we've got to change our ideas about how to help them."

CLEM: "In what way, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "We've got to realize that excessive drinkers are suffering from more than a craving for alcohol. According to psychiatrists and medical men at one of our great universities, the alcoholic is a sick person. The study of hundreds of cases shows he is suffering from some physical, social or emotional condition...just as in the case of that poor chap in the picture. Fortunately, they represent only a very small percentage of those who drink."

TED: "Is anything being done to really help these folks, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Yes...a great deal in clinics throughout the country. And with the cooperation of the beverage distillers who sincerely want their product used only in moderation."
